Data#3 Congratulates Glen Boreham

Data#3 is pleased to congratulate its recently appointed Board Member, Glen Boreham on his Member of the Order of Australia achievement in the 2012 Australia Day awards. Glen has been recognised for his service to business and the IT sector, as well as professional associations and the arts.

Glen was appointed to the Data#3 Board of Directors in November, 2011 as a Non-Executive Director. With a career spanning 25 years at IBM, Glen was the Managing Director of the local subsidiary – IBM Australia and New Zealand, before stepping down in January 2011. In June 2008, Boreham was appointed as the inaugural Chair of Screen Australia and in March 2011 was announced as the Chair of the Australian Government's Convergence Review.

Twice in recent years he was named by the Australian Financial Review as one of the top five most powerful leaders in the information industries.

Please join Data#3 in congratulating Glen on this achievement.
