Customers continue to benefit from enduring partnership as Data#3 is named South Pacific HP Partner of the Year

November 14, 2017; Brisbane, Australia: Leading Australian technology provider, Data#3, is proud to announce that it has been named South Pacific HP Partner of the Year for the 2017 financial year due to its continuing growth in mobility and personal computing solution sales.

Recognised in front of over 1,400 global partners, the company received the award at HP's Worldwide Partner Conference in Chicago.

Several Data#3 executives attended the conference, including Laurence Baynham, Data#3 Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director.

"Having won three accolades at the HP Awards in Australia, it's a fantastic achievement to be recognised by HP in a global forum. This demonstrates that our strategic partnership is thriving and delivering transformative outcomes to our customers."

Data#3 is one of HP's largest Platinum Partners, and for 30 years, the companies have collaborated on many complex IT solutions, across Australia.
