Data#3 Recognised with ANZ Partner of the Year Award at Cisco Partner Summit 2018

November 16, 2018; Brisbane, Australia: Leading Australian technology services and solutions provider, Data#3, today announced that is has been named as ANZ Partner of the Year at Cisco Partner Summit 2018.

Data#3 received the award at Cisco's annual partner conference in Las Vegas, Nevada, for its innovation, leadership and best practice as a Cisco business partner across the ANZ region.

Data#3 Group Practice Manager, Graham Robinson, accepted the award on behalf of the company, which was recognised for its commitment to delivering services and solutions that help customers to transform their businesses.

"We are delighted to receive the ANZ Partner of the Year award," said Robinson. "As a Cisco Gold and Master partner, we're focused on delivering outcomes which propel our customers' businesses forward. This award recognises the hard work of the amazing Data#3 and Cisco teams, and our ability to use Cisco's market-leading technology to transform our customers' businesses."

Data#3 Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director, Laurence Baynham, commented, "What a fantastic accomplishment. Data#3 and Cisco have a longstanding relationship, which is backed by expertise and well-coordinated strategies. This is the second award received at the Cisco Partner Summit, and I'm extremely proud of what the team has achieved. Well done to all involved."

Earlier in the week, Data#3 received the Global Award for Software Partner of the Year at Cisco Partner Summit, which recognised superior business practices and rewarded best-in-class methodologies.

Cisco Partner Summit Theatre awards reflect the top-performing partners within specific technology markets across the ANZ region. All award recipients are selected by a group of Cisco Global Partner Organisation and regional, and theatre executives.

Cisco Partner Summit is attended by more than 2,100 global attendees from Cisco's eco-system of partners representing more than 1,000 companies worldwide from more than 75 countries.
